Continued Enthusiasm in the Great Wash Goods Sale

The Wash Goods Section has been crowded since the inauguration of this great sale. Everybody has been interested, and business has been exceedingly large from the first day—breaking the selling records of last year's event every day!

We offer two special values which will be on sale this morning. One is a lot of Solid Colored Lawns, in lavender, pink, Nile, light blue and black; very fashionable for dresses, and also used a great deal for making slips to wear under white dresses; this lot special at, per yard 7c

Another lot of Flowered Organdy, in every desirable shade, including the dark ground with floral designs; very attractive, and will make a beautiful dress for summer; special, per yard 10c

K. FISHER & SON ARE BANKRUPT

Merchant Goes Under After Forty-five Years of Success. Liabilities $74,000.

K. Fisher, conducting a men's clothing business under the names, K. Fisher and K. Fisher & Son, at 1401 East Main Street and 315 East Broad Street, filed an involuntary petition in bankruptcy yesterday in the United States District Court, setting the liabilities of the firm at $74,000. The assets, composed of stock and insured notes, amount to $55,000. Henry Schwartz and George Hanson were appointed receivers for the firm by Judge Waddill.

Four banks in the city—the Bank of Richmond, the Savings Bank of Richmond, the Planters' National Bank and the American National Bank—hold the firm's notes for about $20,000. The notes are in the main secured by independent collateral.

Richmond mercantile houses have comparatively little interest in the bankruptcy proceedings, as most of the liabilities are due clothing firms in New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

K. Fisher has been in the clothing business in Richmond for forty-five years, and was considered among the strongest merchants in the city. His store at Fourteenth and Main Streets was a most profitable concern, but last fall he decided to branch out, and with his son began a clothing store on East Broad Street, between Third and Fourth. This venture, in the opinion of his friends, proved his downfall, and the expense incident to its maintenance was more than the old firm could stand.

CHAMBER LIKELY TO INDORESE SALE

Meeting To-Day Will Determine Disposition of Commerce Building.

Strong sentiment is believed to exist among the members of the Chamber of Commerce in favor of the sale of the present building and lot and of the erection on the same site by the new purchasers of a more modern office building. In the event this is done, it is believed a reservation will be made to the effect that the chamber will have quarters in the new structure.

This afternoon at 5 o'clock a meeting of members of the body will be held to decide upon the matter. Contrary opinions are likely to be expressed, but guesses, or, more strongly, surmises, are being made that the decision will be for a better and a bigger building.

The feeling exists that the present Chamber of Commerce building, which was such a creditable structure at the time of its erection, is now not so nearly modern as befits the location and the demands of the times. This impression will, it is believed, aid the efforts of those who wish to make the change.

A syndicate, it is understood, is to be the purchaser at a price which will net it a profit on the matter. Although this is the case, there may be a contention that the figure is not quite high enough in view of the central location and of the rapid enhancement of values.

DIDN'T KNOW HIS GUN WAS LOADED

Sweetheart Dies in Hospital From Pistol Ball in Heart.

GRINNA GIVES HIMSELF UP

His Account Agrees With Julia Burton's Ante Mortem Statement.

While demonstrating his bravado in taking a revolver out of his pocket and cleaning it before his sweetheart, Milo Grinna, a colored boy, twenty-one years old, shot and killed Julia Burton in her home, 107 West Jackson Street last night at 10 o'clock. The bullet passed through the lower portion of the girl's heart and she died within a half-hour afterwards in the City Home Hospital.

Both the dead woman and the boy who shot her declared last night that the shooting was accidental. An ante-mortem statement was gotten from the woman by Dr. Womack, of the city ambulance corps, in which she said that the boy had taken the revolver from his pocket, ostensibly to clean it, when it exploded. The bullet struck her in the breast and deflected slightly, passing through the lower portion of her heart.

Milo Grinna has been a porter in the employ of the grocery house of McCurdy & Haynes for several years, and has been classed among the best of porters by his employers. He had been paying attention to Julia Burton for some time, and it was thought that they would be married before the summer was over.

Didn't Know It Was Loaded.

Although he is, or has always been, of a most peaceable nature, he, according to his own statement made to the police, was not aware of the fact when he went to call on his sweetheart last night. He showed the revolver to his sweetheart, and, boy-like, said he would clean it. Before he had begun to do so, however, the revolver went off and the sweetheart fell to the floor.

The father and mother of the woman were in the house, and they came into the room where Milo and the woman were at the time of the shooting. A few moments afterwards the ambulance was called and Dr. Womack responded. The woman was in a desperate condition when the ambulance arrived, and would not wait for particulars, she was rushed to the City Home Hospital. Before an operation could be performed to save her life the woman died.

Gave Himself Up.

Before he was taken to the death house, Grinna came to the police station, and gave himself up. He did not know at the time that he had killed the woman, and he said he was only slightly injured. He told a straightforward story about the matter and was locked up.

The coroner will hold an inquest early in the morning at 10 o'clock in the City Hall. At the inquest, the dead woman and the boy will be the subjects of the inquiry. The absence of witnesses to the shooting almost insures a verdict of that character.

Injured Man Unable to Appear as Witness—Will Be Placed Under Bond.

The case of Edgar Kaufman, of 113 West Cary Street, charged with running into a wagon driven by Philip Seta, of 214 West Cary Street, Tuesday afternoon, was continued in the Police Court yesterday morning to May 14, owing to the inability of the injured man to appear. He was taken to the Virginia Hospital soon after the accident, and his condition was said to be bad.

H. Kaufman, brother of Edgar Kaufman, was fined $50 on a charge of speeding.

W. T. Witte, a druggist, was placed under $3000 bail for twelve months on the charge of annoying a young woman employed in the office of the State Department of Public Instruction. Dr. W. Witte, father of the accused, went on his bond.
